1. An infantry battalion has been billeted since the end of World War II in twenty former German wooden huts in the Wascianki district about five kilometers from Dojlidy (S54/G48). (1)
2. The 6th Tank Regiment is quartered in former German barracks in Vogsdorf about five kilometers from Opole. The barracks installation consists of four rows of three three-story brick buildings. Behind the buildings are brick garages housing T-34 tanks and self-propelled guns believed to be larger than 105 mm in caliber.
3. At Kaniowo near Biedrusko is an armored regiment and an Air Force summer training camp. A motorized infantry brigade is located at Biedrusko (P53/X27). An infantry regiment is located at Pruszkow near Warsaw. An independent infantry battalion is located at Swinoujscie. The 11th Infantry Regiment is located at Gorzow. (2) In Lublin is an infantry cadet school, an independent signal battalion and a radio-telegraphers' school. An information cadet school is located at 36 Grojecka Street in Warsaw. 50X1-HUM
4. An infantry division headquarters is located near Lake Krzywe in Olsztyn. (3) In the same barracks installation is an infantry regiment with [redacted] an artillery cadet school. A light artillery regiment, which was transferred from Olsztyn in 1950, is reported to be stationed in Mragowo (Sensburg - R54/A27). A motorized infantry regiment was transferred in the spring of 1951 from Olsztyn to Wroclaw, where it is quartered in the suburb of Lesnica. 50X1-HUM
5. In a garrison between Zary and Zegan there are between eight and ten thousand Polish troops constituting an infantry division headquarters, an infantry regiment, two motorized infantry regiments and a medium tank regiment. (4) A light artillery regiment is located in barracks in a forest about four kilometers south of Gorzowin (R52/L45). Troops are soon expected to fill the newly reconditioned barracks on the Drweca River at Brodnica (Q54/D90).
6. A KBW (Corps of Internal Security) regiment of about 1,500 men is located in Gora Kalwaria (R52/L16). A KBW battalion is stationed in Walbrzych. New barracks are being built in Katowice for the KBW about 300 m from the barracks at present occupied by a KBW regiment. This regiment has garrisons in Rybnik, Zory, Raciborz, Zabrze and Bytom. There is a UB (Security Police) training center in Katowice at the corner of Kilinskiego and Poniatowskiego Streets.
7. The WOP (Border Guard Corps) battalion quartered near the fishing harbor in
